

Ideas for Faith Sharing

Ideas for conducting a productive group discussion:

- Read and discuss daily Mass readings. (From the Collect of the daily mass readings - use the first person point of view). Consider putting yourself into the scene
- Study and discuss the Bible
- Share and discuss daily anxieties
- Watch documentaries of and discuss the lives of the saints
- Read and discuss daily devotionals (e.g., the Magnificat)
- Study and discuss the Catechism of the Catholic Church
- Study and discuss certain Catholic teachings (e.g., Purgatory)
- Record and watch the mass on EWTN
- Put yourself in the presence of God with a friend and reflect on His Goodness
- Pray the Rosary
- Pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet
- Share your own prayer intentions
- Pray the Holy Spirit prayer
- Study and discuss the Gloria from the mass. Break it up into the sentences and then reflect on it in your group
- Share and discuss your personal stories
- Reflect on and discuss the Magnificat cover image (an explanation of it can be found at the end of the Magnificat.)
- Regardless of what you chose to do within your group, consider taking notes during your discussion to create a journal to share with your group.
- Get to know your brothers/sisters in your Faith Sharing Group on a personal level.

 Create your own program of what you want in your Faith Sharing Group from amongst these ideas. For example, Begin with the ACTS Holy Spirit prayer, talk about your daily anxieties, pray the Rosary, share your own prayer intentions, end with Divine Mercy Chaplet.

Be creative in your Faith Sharing Group. This could be a 1 year program. Then consider changing it up the following year, etc. Keep it simple.
